

Questions About Selling Your Home

Questions About Selling Your Home

Use the following list of questions to help you think about what you want to achieve in selling your home.

Don't worry if you can't answer each question, just do the best you can. We can help you with any questions you can't answer.

Knowing the answers to these questions will make the process much simpler and smoother. That means stress for you!

Why are you selling your home? _____

What is your desired move-out date and why? _____

What are you hoping to receive for the property? Explain how you came up with this price.

What's the lowest price you're willing to accept?

Will you need to include any contingencies in the contract? (ie: move-out contingency)

Are there any arrangements that would help you? (ie: moving, inspection, or appraisal services)

What do you like most about your home? _____
